

Kirby Heyborne

Kirby Heyborne is an accomplished actor, musician, and comedian. He has received critical acclaim for his starring roles in the award-winning World War Two drama "Saints and Soldiers", the lighthearted family comedy "The R.M.", the award-winning boy band mockumentary "The Sons of Provo", and the award-winning quixotic comedy "Pirates of the Great Salt Lake" (The Weinstein Co.). He has had starring roles in thirteen features and many short films. Kirby has also appeared on the WB's "Everwood" and many national commercials. Recently, Kirby was seen as a recurring character on the hit FOX sitcom "Free Ride."

As a musician, Kirby has recorded four solo albums and had his music featured in many films. Kirby has delighted audiences across the country with his ability to blend heart-warming stories, beautiful music and comedic wit. Said a concert attendee, "I can't decide which I enjoyed more: your side-splitting stories, your fabulous vocal/instrumental skills or your friendly down-to-earth personality."

Kirby is also co-founder and director of the celebrated LA-based improv comedy group The Society.
